Grace Reformed Episcopal Church

Architectural Survey File

This is the architectural survey file for this MIHP record. The survey file is organized reverse-chronological (that is, with the latest material on top). It contains all MIHP inventory forms, National Register nomination forms, determinations of eligibility (DOE) forms, and accompanying documentation such as photographs and maps.

Users should be aware that additional undigitized material about this property may be found in on-site architectural reports, copies of HABS/HAER or other documentation, drawings, and the “vertical files” at the MHT Library in Crownsville. The vertical files may include newspaper clippings, field notes, draft versions of forms and architectural reports, photographs, maps, and drawings. Researchers who need a thorough understanding of this property should plan to visit the MHT Library as part of their research project; look at the MHT web site (mht.maryland.gov) for details about how to make an appointment.

All material is property of the Maryland Historical Trust.

Anne - How are you?

Here are dribbets of information to be cranked out. The system:

HA 552:

Source: Meigs, Cornelia. History of St Johns Church, Havre de Grace Parish 1809-1959.
 printed by the Democratic Ledger of Havre de Grace in 1959.

- At the time of a dispute within St Johns church between the minister and the vestry over ministerial authority, ^{many members of St Johns Church} ~~many~~ sought another branch of the Episcopal Church to form a separate ~~church~~ parish. The dispute had been so serious that Bishop Paret of Maryland had locked the doors of St Johns Church on Easter Morning ^{10 April} 1809.

The Grace Reformed Episcopal Church was a member of an offshoot of the Episcopal Church adhering to a simpler ^{ritual} ~~ceremonial~~ and plainer church buildings.
